Dear Members and Representatives of the Burlington County Business Community,

The Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders encourages municipal officials and the business community to attend an New Jersey Economic Development Authority (NJEDA) Roadshow on Tuesday, March 24 at the Burlington County Library, 5 Pioneer Blvd., Westampton from 9-11:30 a.m. to learn about all the NJEDA's new and expanded programs.

There will be program experts on site to discuss how the NJEDA can support your business, organization, or city and answer any questions you might have.

Since 2018, the NJEDA has grown into a comprehensive economic development agency that provides robust support for small business owners, entrepreneurs, nonprofits, and municipalities.

Register for the FREE road show by emailing edcoordinator@bcbridges.org or by phone at 609-265-5055.

Programs that will be highlighted at the roadshow include:

- Expanded Angel Investor Tax Credit
- Brownfield Redevelopment Loan
- Small Business Access loan program focused on providing capital to minority-, women-, LGBT-, veteran-, and immigrant-owned businesses
- Microbusiness Loan Program
- Funding for Community Development Finance Institutions
- Technical assistance programs to help municipalities, small businesses, and entrepreneurs acquire the skills and credentials needed to thrive in the state's innovation economy
- Film and Digital Media Tax Credit
- NJ Ignite rent support program for startups
- Clean energy financing tools
- The 21st Century Redevelopment Challenge to assist municipalities in planning for the reuse or redevelopment of large-scale corporate campuses or vacant retail
- Sector-specific tools for offshore wind, life sciences, technology, professional services, transportation & logistics, and advanced manufacturing
- New grant opportunities to support cutting-edge research.

Very truly yours,

Felicia Hopson
Burlington County Freeholder Director
